

'Badgerbrook Books' news

Welcome to the first Badgerbrook book newsletter. Each term we will keep you updated with reading activities at Bagderbrook.

The Sun newspaper – books for school

You may have seen that the Sun newspaper is running a scheme to donate books to school. In order for us to receive books worth £600 we need to collect 3,500 tokens! Please ask family and friends to start collecting. There will be a box in reception. Thank you!

Badgerbrook Library

There have been a few changes in our library this term. We now have a fantastic group of Year 6 librarians. Their job involves supporting the day to day running of the library but also finding and promoting great book choices for children at Badgerbrook. Have a look below at our first author of the month and our book of the week choices too!

Author of the month at Badgerbrook

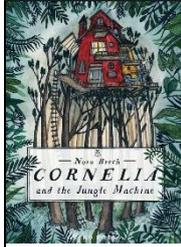

Our first author of the month was Children's laureate 2019 Cressida Cowell. Have you read any books by Cressida? She is probably most famous for her 'How to train your dragon' series.

She has also written Books such as 'The wizard of once'
And 'How to be a pirate'

Book of the week has been...

Cressida Cowell – How to twist a dragon's tale
Michael Morpurgo – War Horse
Spinderella – Julia Donaldson

New books!

We are excited to say that we will be using some of the proceeds from our Christmas Fair to purchase some amazing picture books for across school. Picture books are a great stimulus for writing for all ages. Look out for them in the next edition!

Reading for pleasure!

As you are aware, here at Badgerbrook we really value the importance of reading for pleasure. Reading any type of text is fantastic – newspapers, non-fiction, kindles, comics. What are you reading right now? I am currently reading Varjak Paw by S F Said – a great choice for Year 3 or 4.

It is also really important to hear stories read aloud – no matter how old children are. Staff at Badgerbrook value the importance of class readers and fitting in time for simply hearing a story for pleasure.

World Book Day 2020

The theme will be the 'Reading Revolution' share a story. They will aim, in one month, to have children share 1 million stories between them.

'Reading for pleasure is the single biggest indicator of a child's future success – more than their family circumstances, more than their parents' educational background or their income.'

The Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
