

'Badgerbrook Books' news

Welcome to the sixth 'Badgerbrook books' newsletter. Each term we will keep you updated with reading activities at Badgerbrook.

Keep reading!

Even though we haven't sent home reading diaries, we want everyone to read regularly. If you can read at least 3 times a week that is fantastic! Reading is so important and helps all other areas of the curriculum.

Reading can be anything – fiction or non-fiction, magazines, e books, newspapers, comics, websites and much more.

If your child reads alone, please ask them questions about the characters, the plot, what they found similar or different about a book.

Roald Dahl Day – 13th September

The annual Roald Dahl Day is on September 13th. How many books have you read by Roald Dahl?

What do you know about him? Do you know where he wrote?

'Here We are' by Oliver Jeffers

Badgerbrook has been looking at this book in every class as everyone returned to school. We have been using it to explore feelings and to produce some fantastic work about planet Earth and how we must look after it. CLPE (The Centre for Literacy in Primary Education) produced some excellent plans for every year group. They are aimed at supporting all our pupils in these unusual times. Look out for some of the amazing work we are producing! (on our website soon)

Little People Big Dreams

Each year group is focussing on one of these great books all based on inspirational men and women past and present. Below are just a few we are using.

'Agents of Hope' books and lessons to support how children are feeling

We now have our new set of books and lessons to support our work on feelings. The lessons have been designed by Andrew Moffat who wrote all our 'No Outsiders' lessons. We love new books at Badgerbrook!

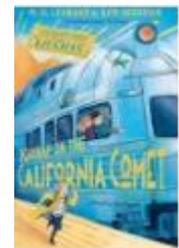

Author of the month – M G Leonard

4DN were very excited last week as they received a special delivery from the author of one of my favourite books - 'Beetle Boy'. I am just starting 'Beetle Queen' so ask me about it when you see me!

She has a new book out called 'Kidnap on the California Comet'. Keep an eye out for it in our library very soon!

Quarantine books and new librarians

We still want you to use our library and take home books. The only difference right now is that an adult will get the books for you to choose. Returned books will be quarantined and returned by an adult. I will be sending out application forms for our new Year 6 librarians very soon so that when we can allow children back into the library our new librarians will be ready!

Keep reading! Tell me about your book. Where will your book take you?
